The World Union for Progressive Judaism and Israel Movement for Progressive Judaism welcome you to Israel, and invite you to join us for a Reform Shabbat in Jerusalem before the GA begins on Sunday!

Your Reform Shabbat experience will begin on Friday night, November 14th with dinner and Oneg Shabbat at World Union headquarters at the beautiful Mercaz Shimshon/Beit Shmuel on King David Street.

Mercaz Shimshon/Beit Shmuel

Shabbat morning, you may participate in services either at HUC or one of our many vibrant local Reform congregations affiliated with the IMPJ.

After lunch, a faculty member of the World Union's acclaimed Anita Saltz International Education Center will serve as your host for an inspirational afternoon walking tour of Jerusalem.

As Shabbat begins to wind down, you'll join us for a Seudah Shlishit study program, led by Rabbi David Ellenson, HUC president, and Rabbi Maya Leibovic, spiritual leader of Kehilat Mevasseret Zion.

Our joyful Havdallah ceremony will help you greet the new week, and prepare you for your GA activities with renewed energy and purpose.

Register Today!

Space is limited, and the GA will be crowded. The cost per registrant is only $150. For further information, send an e-mail to elyse@wupj.org.il or call either +972-2-620-3622 (Jerusalem) or +212-452-6530 (NYC).

Complete this form and fax to +972-2-620-3525 or mail with your check to the Anita Saltz International Education Center at 13 King David Street, Jerusalem 94101, Israel.
