BUILDING COMMUNITIES

From Southern Europe and the Iberian Peninsula, across the Former Soviet Union, to the Far East and Singapore, we're meeting the challenge of strengthening Reform Jewish life head on.

Our rabbinic placement and Shomrei Torah programs provide emerging and small congregations with the basics of Jewish spiritual life – a rabbi and a Torah scroll – ensuring their ability to grow.

Regional rabbinic councils and Batei Din in Europe, Latin America, Israel, South Africa & Australia, address critical issues facing Reform Jews today, including conversion.

NURTURING LEADERS

From congregational leaders to Jewish educators, youth workers and social advocates, our seminars inspire and empower new visions for our movement's future.

Our academic partners, Leo Baeck College in London, Abraham Geiger Kolleg in Potsdam, and Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion in the US and Israel, continue to prepare individuals for meaningful leadership and service to Reform Judaism.

Our Institute for Modern Jewish Studies in Moscow and the IberoAmerican Institute for Reform Rabbinical Education in Buenos Aires recruit and train rabbis to meet growing regional needs.

INSPIRING THE NEXT GENERATION

Our flagship programs – Netzer Olami for youth and Tamar Olami for young adults – are empowering young people in thirteen countries to take on the responsibility of guiding our movement. Together, we are paving a stronger and more vibrant future for the next generation of Progressive Judaism.

With twenty-one Netzer Camps on five continents, we strive to deepen connections among the next generation to their peers, to the Jewish people, to Reform Judaism and to Israel, culminating in our Shnat Netzer gap year program.

TOGETHER, WE ARE THE PROGRESSIVE JEWISH WORLD. SUPPORT OUR GROWTH.
