

Permanent Rabbi for Brighton and Hove Progressive Synagogue

Brighton and Hove Progressive Synagogue are looking for a new, permanent Progressive Rabbi for our thriving, liberal community with 230 members and 60 friends established in Brighton and Hove for over 80 years.

We are an inclusive, caring, Liberal Jewish community and a participating Eco Synagogue. This is an exciting role for an energetic Rabbi who is committed to social justice and the values, ethos, and practices of Liberal Judaism. Recently, we have been engaging and connecting our community via digital technology and we are looking for an innovative, creative Rabbi to build on this and lead our community into the future.

Our current Rabbi of 20 years, Rabbi Elli Tikvah Sarah, will be retiring on 1st May 2021 when we will have a period of reflection and transition between Rabbi Elli's retirement and our appointment of a new permanent Rabbi. The length of this period will depend upon applications received.

Experience Level:	We will consider all levels of experience including newly or soon to be ordained Rabbis
Commencement Date:	To be discussed with applicants
Full Time/Part Time:	To be discussed with applicants
Flexible Working Hours:	We will offer flexible working hours by agreement
Location:	At our Synagogue in Hove; home working by agreement
Salary and Benefits:	Dependent upon experience
Closing Date for Applications:	12.00pm on Friday 12 th February 2021

Applications will be assessed on a rolling basis (with interviews and discussions with applicants taking place both before and after the Closing Date).

Please apply to our Chair at the above address with your CV and a personal statement either by post or email. At a later stage, we will require the contact details of at least two referees.

For a confidential discussion before applying, for more information, or just to register your interest, call or email us. We will arrange for a member of our Synagogue Council to call you.
